

DGM 2221 GAME BRAINSTORMING IDEAS

1. You are transported to a land created totally of Candy and you must defeat the king before you turn into candy yourself and get stuck in the world forever.
2. The character gladiator from ancient Rome stuck in present day. You are being chased by the police and you must search out the person that can get you home.
3. The character is lost in the jungle and must explore the area to find his way out. There are traps and monster bugs all over.
4. The character exists in a Mayan Civilization and must solve puzzles in order to find the hidden secret of the temple. They must also fight the people trying to hide the secret from the world.
5. The character is a rubber band man living in the world of office supplies. He carries his toothpick around as a weapon, battling the evil paper clip men trying to save the rubber band king's child.
6. The Elastic arm ninja must release the moon god before the world is swallowed up by the ocean. He must find clues as to the location of the god before the antagonist finds him and destroys the god.
7. The character lives on the ocean floor. They must find the magical vampire squid in order to protect the life living on the ocean floor from invading crabs and their crab king.